Optimists Stress Boys' Work, Open Special Week In Edmonton Sunday

Boys' Work Is Featured By Optimist International

Edmonton Optimist club features boys' work as its year-round project in accord with the international motto "Friend of the Boy". Forty boys this year are members of the Junior Optimist club of Edmonton. Some of the organization belonging to such an organization is the Edmonton Y.M.C.A., which with the senior club members, and a summer camp at Lake Wabamun.

The boys receive special instruction twice weekly in 7th grade, swimming and handcrafts. Once each week two members of the senior club drop in to chat with the junior members, usually devoting their time to a vocational talk descriptive of their own business classification.

By these informal chats each Junior Optimist gains a clearer understanding of what possibilities lie before him in the business and professional world.

During July and August each boy enjoys a two-week camp. Transportation to and from the camp, 40 miles west of Edmonton, is provided by the senior club members.

The Junior Optimists are assigned to senior members who become Optimist "uncles" to the boys. At least once each month the boy and his "uncle" enjoy a special event, such as a picture show, hockey game or some other form of entertainment.

At one meeting each month members are called on to relate their special effort of the month with their Junior Optimist. The senior club also holds several meetings each year to which the Junior Optimists are invited.

Mayor Supports Optimist Week

Mayor Ainlay was enthusiastic recently in his support of Optimist Week in Edmonton.

He said the club was doing excellent work in the city by assisting to curb juvenile delinquency and privileges to at least 40 boys.

Here is the proclamation as it was signed by Mayor Ainlay:

Whereas, The Optimist club of the city of Edmonton is celebrating the period from Oct. 5 to 11, 1947 as Optimist Week; and whereas, The Optimist club is an organization functioning in the public interest, serving the community through their activities as "Friends of the Boy," thereby performing an important service in curbing juvenile delinquency; and whereas, It is of civic importance that such good work continue and expand and that all members of this community recognize the achievements of the Optimist club of the City of Edmonton, I, as mayor of the city of Edmonton, do hereby proclaim that the week beginning on Oct. 5, 1947, and ending on Oct. 11, 1947, shall be designated as Optimist Week for the city of Edmonton and that all citizens of this community shall be called upon to observe thereof.

Plane Over Ocean Not In Danger

NEW YORK (AP)—Trans World Airlines, commenting on a report that an 808 had been intercepted from a TWA plane over the Atlantic said early Friday that the TWA plane flying over the north Atlantic was in no danger.

The report that a 808 had been sent out came from the United States coast guard who said the plane was between Shannon, Ire, and Newfoundland.

The coast guard said afterward that a later communication had been received from the plane and that in the view of this message the original report probably dealt with an "operational condition" that was dealt with quickly.

IMPOSSIBLE

After the service the preacher, an old-fashioned type, favored the old lady with his views on eternal punishment. There was a great deal of fire and brimstone in it. "I don't believe it," the old lady said impulsively. "No human contemplation could possibly stand it."

Mayor Ainlay Signs Proclamation For Optimist Week

Optimist week in Edmonton will be held from Oct. 5 to Oct. 11. Mayor Ainlay is shown in the above picture signing the proclamation at the city hall. Standing beside the mayor's desk are Dr. Lou Heard, left, president of the Edmonton Optimist club, and Alfred Gregory, chairman of the child welfare fund of the club. It is planned to advertise the Optimist week by dropping 10,000 copies of the organization's record from an airplane Saturday afternoon. The plan will be piloted by Maurice Fallow.

Energetic Heads In Optimist Club

Edmonton Optimist club has an energetic executive, headed by Dr. Lou Heard, well-known Edmontonian.

Other members of the executive elected this year are B. L. Robinson, treasurer; B. W. King, section vice-president in charge of program; Alexander Willis, boys' work; L. M. Howard, membership; and C. C. Kuhnke, publicity and public welfare.

The women's auxiliary of the club is headed by Mrs. T. H. Morgan, Mrs. A. de Bruin is the vice-president. Other officers are Mrs. Henry Fawcett, secretary; Mrs. J. J. Harvey, treasurer; Mrs. E. B. Olson, social convener; and Mrs. R. W. Wright, program convener; and Mrs. R. W. Wright, telephone committee convener.

"Mile Of Dimes" Optimists' Aim

In conjunction with the celebration of Optimist Week in Edmonton the Optimist club is sponsoring a drive for a "Mile of Dimes," proceeds of which will be used to further the boys' work projects of the club. Their debut is chairman of the committee in charge of the drive.

Each club member will be given a special printed card, designed to hold their contributions. Through-out Optimist Week contributions of dimes for these cards will be solicited and at the same time the ideal of Optimism will be disseminated.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Optimist club will play an important role in this project also. Several leading downtown stores have given permission for the women to set up tables and solicitation cards in the stores. It is expected that many additional dimes will be received through these efforts. Mrs. T. H. Morgan, president of the Auxiliary, is in charge.

DONATE $1000

Edmonton Optimists contributed $1,000 to the recent British campaign in Edmonton. The club officials specified the donation should be used for the Y.M.C.A. as it was

Optimists Have Excellent Creed

Members of the Edmonton Optimist club have an outstanding creed. Here are some of the points in the creed.

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

Euent of Union

Nfld. Has No Lack Of Potential MP's

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Oct. 3.—(CP)—Newfoundland as a 10th Canadian province, a possibility arising from discussions just ended in Ottawa, likely would have little trouble in finding men to head revived political parties or to represent her in the Canadian Parliament.

AS THINGS stand now, eighteen appear to stand out as potential party leaders or as members of parliament for the island. The men, most of them members of the 48-man convention elected in June, 1946, to recommend future forms of government for the island, are of varying political hues.

They are F. Gordon Bradley, Chester A. Crook, Charles E. Hunt, Calvert C. Pratt, Peter J. Cahill, all of St. John's; J. R. Smallwood of Gander, Isaac Newell of White Bay, and William J. Krough of St. George's.

As a 10th province the island would be entitled to six seats in the Senate, where appointments are for life, and to seven seats in the Commons. As well the island would have a provincial government.

BEFORE the island's financial difficulties led to the appointment of a commission of government in 1934, Newfoundland's affairs were handled by a 21-man House of Assembly and an 18-man Legislative Council. It is not yet known whether a two-chamber legislature would be revived in the event of union.

In the days of responsible government, the island knew only the Liberal and Conservative parties, but as a 10th province there seems little doubt it would become the stamping ground of all Canada's major political parties.

Mr. Bradley and Mr. Smallwood likely would form the nucleus of a Liberal party. Mr. Cahill, Mr. Crook, Mr. Hunt and Mr. Pratt likely would line up with a Conservative party, while Mr. Newell and Mr. Krough might form a CCF or Labor party.

MR. BRADLEY, considered the island's top criminal lawyer, was solicitor-general from 1926 to 1932 in the last of Newfoundland's Liberal governments.

He headed delegation which visited London and Ottawa to obtain for the convention information on which to base recommendations as to future form or forms of government. He has served as chairman of the convention since the death in early 1947 of Chief Jus-

Pastor Refuses Take Pay Boost

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(CP)—Rev. John Sutherland Russell, Canadian pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, has declined a $2,000 salary increase on the grounds his present pay is "enough to live on." It was learned last night.

Dr. Russell, formerly of Caledonia, P.E.I., and prior to 1933 pastor of Westminster United Church in Toronto, said his action in declining the proffered salary boost was not to be regarded "in any sense" as a necessary part for other ministers.

When the pastor came to New York from Winnipeg 12 years ago it was understood his salary was $10,000 plus an apartment on upper Fifth Avenue. Two years ago he received an increase in his stipend.

Dr. Russell said he had refused the extra $2,000 for two reasons. "First, I live on that salary," he said, "and I have no need of it."

Second, my wife and I feel that by an adjustment of our family budget we will be able to meet the rising cost of living," Dr. and Mrs. Russell have four children, the three oldest of whom are in college.

Meet 'Mr. Chin of 1947'

John L. Lewis—called "most attention-compelling" chin. The English bulldog—called ugly, but beautiful.

John L. Lewis, who has been called many names by many people, now bears a new tag. He was named "Mr. Chin, 1947" by the International Institute of Artists and Photographers, as represented by Mervyn, photographer, James Montgomery Flagg, artist, and Fred Robbins, cartoonist. Lewis won from a list of six men in various walks of life.

Of 21 on Staffs Only 7 Pitchers Not Used so Far

By AL COLLETT

EBERTS FIELD, Brooklyn, Oct. 3.—(CP)—As the confident Yankees' faithful streamed out of the stadium after the game yesterday, watching their Dodgers win what was probably one of the worst-pitched World Series games they've seen, a blind beggar jingled his tin cup and said:

"We gotta win tomorrow—no hope!"

When Larry (Yogi) Berra batted for Sherman Lollar in the seventh and hammered a home run to pull the Yankees within one run of a tie, it was the first time a pinch-hitter ever walked a home run in a World Series. After a Dodger fan had screamed "You big son of a gun!" to which Berra's fast ones and sent it into Bedford ave.

When Berra's big blow sent the Yankees to the showers, a fan shouted at Brooklyn's erstwhile manager, Leo Durocher, "what's 38 gonna do now, Lappy?"—to which Durocher, sitting in a box seat near the Dodger stadium, turned and grinned sheepishly. . . . Just then Manager Burt Shotton decided to yank Berra and send in old reliable Hugh Casey.

This was the Dodgers' best day at bat in a World Series game. . . . The nine runs were scored in output in 20 World Series games they've participated in, the first total of 13 tied their previous mark, and the six runs in the second inning was their highest total.

Only the two regular right-handers of both clubs, Joe Page and Casey, pitched creditable ball. The rest continually were were behind the bat and there were plenty of fat ones for both sides to hit—starting out the pre-season prediction that this would be probably the worst pitched world series in history. . . . In all eight batters were sent to the bill Thursday, five of them by Manager Bucky Harris of the Yankees. Of the 21 pitchers who comprise the two staffs, only seven have not seen action.

B.C. Liberals Ask Overhaul Bill 39

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—(CP)—A resolution urging British Columbia's coalition government to "overhaul and amend" the recently-passed provincial Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act was unanimously approved at a meeting of the B.C. Liberal Party executive here last night.

Although expressing agreement with the principles and objectives of the measure—known as Bill 39, which provides penalties for illegal strikes and lockouts—delegates asked that early in the next session of the legislature the government make it "more consistent with recognized liberal, democratic and equitable principles" and to provide for "much more practical, speedy and efficient"

U.S. Farmers Truck Grain Into Canada

WINNIPEG, Oct. 3.—(CP)—The Winnipeg Tribune said in a newspaper story yesterday it had been informed that American farmers along the international border are trucking grain to Canadian elevators and making a substantial profit owing to the higher Canadian price.

The story quoted an unidentified wheat pool official as saying that deliveries totalling more than 100,000 bushels recently were received at one Manitoba border point. The movement also was described as heavy to Saskatchewan and Alberta points.

October 1946 closed at $2.50 on the Winnipeg grain exchange Tuesday while the market price in Minnesota was $2.30, a difference of $0.20 a bushel.

American farmers trucking their grain over the border pay nine cents a bushel duty and $2.4 cents on exchange to United States banks on each bushel, a total expense of $24 cents.

The exchange paid to the banks on Canadian dollars is necessary since Canadian currency is not generally accepted at par in the United States. The exchange rate is based on prices quoted in New York foreign exchange dealings. The operation thus leaves the farmer with a profit of between 43-50 cents a bushel, the Tribune estimated.

To Ease Shortages

Building Trades Ask Worker Importation

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3.—(CP)—Albert Deschamps of Montreal, president of the Canadian Construction Association, said last night the association has asked the federal labor department to bring construction workers from displaced persons camps in Europe to help overcome labor shortages here.

IN AN ADDRESS prepared for delivery at a Pacific Coast regional meeting of the association Mr. Deschamps said the national joint conference board, expressing the views of both employers and labor in the construction industry, had urged an immediate start on an orderly program of immigration of construction labor.

We are satisfied that the continuing demand for construction, the disproportionate amount of older workers in the construction industry, the failure to supply sufficient new workers through the apprenticeship system, all of which demands immigration of construction workers which will be no way interfere with employment of Canadian workers or their standard of living," said Mr. Deschamps.

"AS IMMIGRANTS" adjusted themselves to their new environment and find their own level in the construction industry, they will provide our construction industry and swell the ranks of organized labor."

Mr. Deschamps said there was need for subsidized housing to satisfy the requirements of Canadians in low income groups. He also said the association favored establishment by the federal government of an independent public projects planning agency, an administrator deferrable public construction.

The board's first task should be to assure that detailed plans and specifications and property titles would be available for $500,000 of public projects which might be needed in any year serious recession," he said. "All projects are taken off the shelf for execution, the shelf should be replenished."

"SUCH A BOARD" should be in a position to act in the interests of the Dominion as a whole, with particular regard to the geography of our country and the peculiar needs of particular localities which differ so appreciably at various times. It is quite conceivable that necessity for public projects will arise much earlier in the new industrialized sections of the country."

He said there would have to be a clear-cut understanding of the respective responsibilities of the federal, provincial and municipal governments.

"These three levels of government all have their part, and their willing cooperation must form the keystone of a well-planned national housing program which will assure the great need without unnecessary public expense."

Reported in Swamp Fearsome Creature Seen in Australia

SYDNEY, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The bumpy, a fearsome swamp creature that is to Australia what the Loch Ness monster is to Scotland and "Ogopogo" is to British Columbia, has come into the news again.

Ed Stibick, of Gundagai, South-eastern New South Wales, told a reporter he had seen "a thing that might be a bumpy" on a lagoon near Gundagai, five hours out at a boat, and the "thing" was submerged, and he didn't see it again.

Every year or two someone reports he has seen a bumpy in a lagoon swamp or shallow lake. But no one has ever been able to prove it.

The bumpy, according to legend, is a shy monster with a peculiar habit of appearing to a person who is swimming in a lagoon. It is said to be a creature that has been in Australia for 100 years ago, but beyond its eating habits, there is no generally accepted description of the creature.

Stibick said the one he saw was a small, dark, bumpy creature with a body a little more than three feet long, apparently covered with hair. He said there was a seagull like the thick part of a swimmer's neck, but head, but two eyes hanging from the upper end of the neck. The creature, he said, "makes a noise like the low moaning of a bull and its water eight feet into the air."

Mainwaring fired three shots but he fled without any loot. But a 20-year term was handed to him for the robbery, which was not a robbery, but a theft.

With the markings in the hat the FBI and Royal Canadian Mounted Police nabbed him at Regina.
